HOW TO RAISE YOUR CHILDREN FOR CHRIST
by Andrew Murray
(Bethany House Publishers) $9.99

In this fifty-two day guide, Murray presents Biblical steps for bringing children to Christ and helping them grow in faith. Each chapter, written around a Scriptural theme, emphasizes key training methods for encouraging children to love God.

HOW YOUR FAMILY CAN FLOURISH
by Ray Ballman
(YWAM Publishing) $7.99
available through Foundation for Family Development

This is a comprehensive hands-on guide for the family who is willing to take a radical stand for Christ in our post-Christian culture. How Your Family Can Flourish teaches how to impart Christian values, deal with tough issues, maintain a commitment to Christ, and reach out to the lost.

SOLDIERS WITH LITTLE FEET
by Dian Layton
(Destiny Image) $12.95

Dian Layton (known to children as "Hugga-Wugga") has been ministering to young people for over twelve years. Her desire is not just to keep children busy but to bring them into God’s presence where real, vital relationship begins. Included are ideas for children’s ministry and lesson planning.

UNVEILED AT LAST
by Bob Sjogren
(YWAM Publishing) $7.99

Unveiled at Last is an excellent paperback filled with personal examples and biblical references to show how God’s heart for the salvation of the world is the major theme of the entire Bible. Sjogren divides this theme into two parts: the “top-line blessings” (how God loves man and wants to bless us), and the “bottom-line responsibilities” (how God has “blessed us to be a blessing” to the rest of the world).

VIDEOS

A.D.
(Gospel Films) 3 tapes, 360 minutes/$99.95

The Book of Acts and the life of the early church come alive in this three-tape series covering the years A.D. 30-69. Very inspirational and moving. However, some persecution scenes are too violent for young children.

AGAINST GREAT ODDS
(Gospel Films) 29 minutes/$29.95

In Ethiopia in 1982, persecution forced the Christian church to go underground and meet in homes. After nine years, the Marxist government was overthrown and the church resurfaced to find that they had grown from 5,000 to 50,000 members. This inspiring film uncovers the secret of this amazing survival.

AN EMPIRE CONQUERED
(Gospel Films) 52 minutes/$29.95

Filmed in Rome, this tells the story of early Christian martyrs and how the followers of Christ eventually won over the Roman Empire.

ASSISI UNDERGROUND
(Gospel Films) 115 minutes/$29.95

Set in World War II, this movie chronicles the story of the fearless priests of the Assisi Monastery, in Italy, as they provided refuge for Jews escaping Nazi persecution.

BAMBOO IN WINTER
(Gospel Films) 58 minutes/$49.95

Set in a Chinese village, a young woman just back from the university is faced with a preacher’s life-changing message from the Bible. With memories of Tiananmen Square still fresh in her mind, she now faces a new kind of revolution—a revolution of the soul. In a land filled with Atheism and Communism, this decision could have devastating consequences. This is an excellent and moving film, based on actual events. Also available in Spanish.

THE CALLING
(Gospel Films) 60 minutes/$29.95

Shot entirely in the Amazon jungles of Peru, this dramatic film presents a clear gospel message and a powerful challenge to missionary commitment. This film features the true story of Roger and Esther Carson-Winans, who meet during their interim missionary service, marry, and raise a family on the mission field. The powerful ending reveals the fruits of the Winans’ missionary labor today.

COMENIUS
Standing in the Storm
(Gospel Films) 73 minutes/$29.95

This video presents Jan Amos Comenius, commonly hailed as the “Father of Modern Education” as he is driven from his homeland because of his beliefs, stripped of everything but his hope and vision for the kingdom of God.

CHARIOTS OF FIRE
(Gospel Films) 124 minutes/$19.95

This is the true story of Eric Liddell, missionary to China, as he prepares for and runs in the Olympics.

C.S. LEWIS
Through the Shadowlands
(Gospel Films) 73 minutes/$19.95

This video tells the story of C.S. Lewis, his life, work, faith, and sorrow. It is a very touching film.

DANGEROUS JOURNEY
(Gospel Films) 135 minutes/$19.95

Next to the Bible, John Bunyan’s classic Pilgrim’s Progress is the world’s all-time best seller. Dangerous Journey introduces children to this adventure story with beautiful illustrations. The package includes a booklet that gives biblical sources for each of the stories. For older children, the nine segments with a Leader’s Guide are great for VBS, Sunday school, or children’s church.

DIETRICH BONHOEFFER
(Gospel Films) 60 minutes/$29.95

This follows the life of the martyred theologian as vividly recalled by those closest to him and shows his struggle over the question, “What does it mean to be a Christian in today’s world?”

THE FINAL FRONTIERS
(William Carey Library) $19.95

This 19-minute video gives a concise overview of the unreached people group concept, the modern missions movement, the accomplishments during the last 200 years of missions, and the relatively small amount of work that is left today.

FIRST FRUITS
(Gospel Films) 70 minutes/$19.95

This is a powerful missionary film of vision and hope. During the early 1700s under the dynamic leadership of Count Zinzendorf, the Moravians sent out more missionaries than any other Protestant groups would send for 200 years. Missionaries among the slaves in the West Indies were met with ridicule, sickness, and condemnation. The first two missionaries were willing to become slaves themselves to proclaim the Gospel.

THE FIRST VALENTINE
(Gospel Films) 30 minutes $19.95

The story of a man determined to make a difference in a pagan culture that prohibited Christian marriages.

THE FOURTH WISEMAN
(Gospel Films) 72 minutes/$19.95

Based on Henry Van Dyke's classic, "The Story of the Other Wise Man," this video tells of a Magi named Arteban who studied the prophecies and witnessed a sign that he hopes will lead him to the Messiah. This deeply moving story examines what true faith really is.

FROM CHRIST TO CONSTANTINE
The Trial and Testimony of the Early Church
(Gospel Films) Six 30-minute sessions on 3 tapes $99.95

Despite persecution and opposition, the early church could not be destroyed, and the faith of the early Christians could not be stopped. This series powerfully describes the first three centuries of Christianity.

GOD'S KALEIDOSCOPE
(Wycliffe) 12 minutes/$15.00

Helping children relate to patterns of living around the world, this video clearly shows every child's need to know God and have His Word in their language.

GOD'S OUTLAW
William Tyndale
(Gospel Films) 95 minutes/$29.95

This true story will inspire you as you relive the life of William Tyndale and his task of translating the Bible into English and publishing it for his fellow countrymen. Today, Tyndale is known as one of the great leaders of the English Reformation.

THE GOOD SEED
(Gospel Films) 30 minutes/$19.95

Mariana Slocum and Florence Gerdie bring the Scriptures to the Tzeltal tribe of Mexico in the local language. A remarkable story of the power of the Gospel.

JOHN BUNYAN
Preacher
(Gospel Films) 30 minutes/$29.95

This is the story of John Bunyan, a seventeenth-century puritan, best known for his book Pilgrim's Progress.

HANNA-BARBERA'S
THE GREATEST ADVENTURE
Stories from the Bible
(Gospel Films) $9.95 each/set of 13 tapes $109.95

This popular Bible series of 13 episodes features the animation of Hanna-Barbera: The Creation, Noah's Ark, Moses, Joseph and his Brother, Joshua and the Battle of Jericho, Samson and Delilah, Queen Esther, David and Goliath, Daniel and the Lion's Den, Jonah, The Nativity, The Miracles of Jesus, and The Easter Story.

HOW SHOULD WE THEN LIVE?
(Gospel Films) 12-30 minute episodes (4 tapes)/$40.00 each 99.95 set

This is Dr. Francis Schaeffer's series on the rise and decline of western culture from a Christian perspective. The program presents profound truths in simple language, concluding that man's only hope is a return to God's biblical absolute—the truth revealed in Christ through the Scriptures. Each episode focuses on a significant era in history while presenting answers to modern problems.

HOW THE BIBLE CAME TO BE
(Gospel Films) 55 minutes/$29.95
This is a beautiful graphic overview of the Old Testament and New Testament, filmed in the Holy Land. It shows how the Bible came to be and addresses the issue of its authenticity.

I, PAUL
(Gospel Films) 26 minutes/$19.95

I, Paul is a re-enactment of New Testament life using Scripture for the entire script, and capturing the passion and compassion of Paul as he neared the end of his life.

THE INN OF THE SIXTH HAPPINESS
(Gospel Films) 158 minutes/$19.95

This is the Ingrid Bergman classic version of the story of Gladys Alward, missionary to China. It is worth viewing over and over again!

WHERE LUTHER WALKED
(Gospel Films) 30 minutes/$24.95

The major events of Martin Luther’s life are recalled in a storytelling format.

JESUS OF NAZARETH
(Gospel Films) 3-tape series, 371 minutes/$59.95

With Biblical and historical accuracy, this moving film tells the life of Christ as recorded in the Gospels.

JOHN HUSS
(Gospel Films) 55 minutes/$19.95

John Huss was willing to pay the ultimate price for his faith. As a priest and scholar in fifteenth-century Bohemia, Huss planted seeds for the Reformation nearly 100 years before Martin Luther. Despite tremendous pressure, he refused to recant and was burned at the stake in 1415. He died singing.

JOHN WYCLIFFE
The Morning Star of the Reformation
(Gospel Films) 75 minutes/$29.95

John Wycliffe was one of Europe’s most renowned philosophers, yet he identified with the common people and taught that fourteenth-century Catholic church doctrines and practices were corrupt. From the New Testament, he used biblical teaching to call the medieval church to repentance. Exiled from Oxford in his later years, he achieved his greatest work—the translation of the entire Bible into English.

MARTIN LUTHER
(Gospel Films) 120 minutes/$19.95

Originally released in theaters in the 1950s and nominated for an Academy Award, this film is still in demand for its power to move viewers. It traces Luther’s life from a guilt-burdened monk through his eventual break with the Roman Catholic Church.

PEACE CHILD
(Gospel Films) 30 minutes/$29.95

Don and Carol Richardson travel to the remote jungles of Irian Jaya, Indonesia, only to be shocked when Judas’ betrayal of Jesus makes him the hero to this primitive people who revere treachery.

This video tells the story of God’s eventual revelation of a tribal custom that gave the Richardsons the tool they needed to effectively share the Gospel.

THE WAIT OF THE WORLD
(Gospel Films) 87 minutes/$29.95

Three young writers for a Christian magazine have been assigned to write articles in West Africa, South America, and Philadelphia. Connected by modern computers they soon become involved in the lives of the people around them as they learn that all Christians should participate in fulfilling the Great Commission. Also available in Spanish.

LIKE A MIGHTY ARMY
(Gospel Films) 55 minutes/$29.95

A small church in Florida grows from 17 to 2,500 members because of a movement to inspire every member to evangelize. A very inspirational and motivating film.

MAMA LUKA COMES HOME
(Gospel Films) 60 minutes/$29.95
Helen Roseveare, a modern missionary doctor to the former Belgian Congo (now Zaire), survives a rebellion where she was beaten, raped and imprisoned. In this film, she travels back to Zaire on the anniversary of the rebellion, vividly telling her story of how love and forgiveness can overcome hatred, brutality, and prejudice.

A MAN CALLED PETER
(Gospel Films) 117 minutes/$19.95

The story of the man who became Chaplain of the U.S. Senate is a moving film of a man's close friendship with God.

JOHN WESLEY
The Man from Aldersgate
(Gospel Films) 72 minutes/$29.95

John Wesley's life had a great impact on England and the United States as he preached the Gospel and wrote over 200 books. He fought for prison reform and child labor laws, and established schools, orphanages, medical care units, milk dispensaries, and shelters for battered women.

THE WORLD GOD LOVES
(Gospel Films) 38 minutes/$29.95

This collection of short videos addresses social and political issues in the world, and the need to share the Gospel. Segments include: Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam, Children and Youth, and Urbanization.

THE THREAD OF PROMISE
(Gospel Films) 15 minutes/$29.95

Tracing the biblical basis for missions from Genesis, through the Old and New Testament, this video gives a clear picture of the Christian call to missions.

THROUGH GATES OF SPLENDOR
(Gospel Films) 36 minutes/$19.95

Narrated by Elisabeth Elliot, Through Gates of Splendor shares the moving story of how five young missionaries were killed by the Aucas Indians of South America and how later many people from this remote tribe came to Christ. Contains actual footage of Jim Elliot and Nate Saint with the Aucas.

JESUS FILM
(Campus Crusade for Christ) - 2 hours
English and Spanish - $19.95 all other languages - $29.95

Taken from the Gospel of Luke, this powerful movie shows the entire life of Christ and is one of the most powerful tools in missions evangelism. Currently, The JESUS Film has been translated into over 250 languages. If you know an international student or are planning to go on a missions outreach, order one of these videos in the language of the people you will be ministering to.

KIDSCAN VIDEOS
(Kids Can Make A Difference)
complete "P" words video packet $45.00
Big Picture Timeline $14.99
Hands-On Geography $14.95

Kids Can Make a Difference is a ministry that helps equip children for ministry, select up-to-date missions resources, and network with others.

Their approach to equipping children is based on ten "P" words. Each of these ten words begins with the letter P (such as "people-moving" and "projects"), and each word has a separate missions teaching.

Some of the materials they provide includes The Big Picture Time Line, for visualizing God's heart for missions throughout the Bible (printed in a book form that can be pieced together), and Hands-on Geography (a practical geography workbook with a missions emphasis designed by homeschoolers). Send for their catalog for more information.
The following mission videos are available:

OTHER MISSIONS RESOURCES

BIBLE VISUALS INTERNATIONAL

Bible Visuals provides flashcard story books, programs for children's church, and audio tapes. They also carry foreign language materials in over seventy languages. They are a great resource for missions materials.

KIDS FOR THE WORLD
A Guidebook for Children's Mission Resources
by Gerry Dueck
(William Carey Library) $11.95

This is a resource book for churches and families on available missions education resources.

The book is divided into three main sections: 1) Resources (curriculum, books, stories, activities, visual aids, audio-visuals, songs and music), 2) Indexes of Resources (material available on specific places or countries around the world, addresses of missionaries, publishers, suppliers and Christian missions education resources), and 3) Specific Samples (including 52 curriculum lesson plans geared for Sunday school, four mission stories, five mission activities, and seven coloring pages).

Gerry Dueck has a heart for missions, children, and families and has been very encouraging to me.

WORLD VISION
(Frontiers) Mission Magazine free

World Vision is an international ministry providing food, education and benevolence to many poor children and families in third-world countries. This glossy full-color magazine contains current information about Frontiers, along with international photographs and interesting articles.

I would encourage you to order this magazine if you are interested in becoming a child sponsor or World Vision partner. Sponsoring a child does not cost much (only about $15/month) and would make an excellent family missions project.

BREAD FOR GOD'S CHILDREN
(Bread Ministries) free-will donation

This magazine contains children's stories, a detailed monthly Bible study, memory verse cards, a page for teens, activity ideas, letters from readers, a parents newsletter, and more. It is family-oriented and homeschool friendly, and emphasizes the importance of world missions. The teachings are biblical, and children are encouraged to live an uncompromised Christian life.

KID'S PRAISE! 6
Heart to Change the World!
Maranatha for Kids $10.95

Psalty shares with the kids about having a Heart To Change The World. Psalty brings the message to your kids about meeting the spiritual and physical needs around the world. With a storyline and music that have an international flavor and Psalty's new invention the "Psaltyscope", Kit's Praise! 6 will inspire your kids to see that Jesus is truly the answer to all of those needs.

Steve Green
The Mission
cassette $10.95

A collection of inspirational missions related songs.
Scott Wesley Brown (WORD)
To the Ends of the Earth cassette - $10.95  CD $14.98
Living in the Comfort Zone cassette - $10.95  CD $14.98
The Passionate Pursuit cassette - $10.95  CD - $14.98
Through The Years
SWB Productions cassette $10.95  CD $14.98

Scott Wesley Brown is a musician in demand at mission conferences around the world with a prophetic message for this hour, reminiscent of Keith Green, to call the church to obey the Great Commission. Scott’s life was changed by attending the Perspectives class in Pasadena. The course inspired Scott to change the entire focus of his music.

In these albums, Scott combines God’s unchanging purpose for all peoples with breathtaking musical artistry to create songs that will break your heart and stir you to action. This is Christian music with a heart for all nations and a call to reach the unreached.

An Inquiry into the Progress of World Evangelization Toward Anno Domini 2000
(Aptract-a-People-Clearinghouse) $39.00

In this program over 12,000 people groups are listed by name, and included with each group are recent facts, statistics, mission involvement (if any) within each people group, and their current status in regards to Christianity. This would be a great guide to start your research of an unreached people group.

General Teaching Helps
Gospel Missionary Union

Flashcard stories, $10.95 each including postage
Mustaphas’s Secret/Muslim boy in Morocco
Surrounded by Headhunters/Ecuador
Yandico/Guarani Indian in Bolivia

These three flashcard stories are my favorite. The pictures are well done, and each book is a sturdy spiral-bound with a full-color cover. The story is written on the back of the picture. Each book is divided into five lessons and includes a salvation message.

New Song in the Andes $6.95 including postage
New Song in the Andes is a paperback book about the history of Gospel Missionary Union’s work among the Quichua Indians of Ecuador. This book includes photographs.

BAPTIST MID-MISSIONS
flashcard stories $3.50/set including postage

These flashcard stories share missionary and salvation stories. (They need to be colored in and mounted on cardboard stock. The pictures are quite simple, and can provide your family with an inexpensive means of building a missions story collection.

CHILD EVANGELISM FELLOWSHIP
flashcard stories and flannelgraphs $10.99 - 13.59

Child Evangelism Fellowship is an international ministry reaching children with the Gospel. All throughout America, CEF conducts “Good News Clubs” in homes and schools to share Christ with children. (Check your phone book for a CEF representative nearest you.) Each soft-cover book is well-made and great for reading to children—either in church or at home. Following is a list of several mission-oriented materials:
- _Run, Ma, Run_ (Mary Slessor/Africa)
- _I Dare/Flannelgraph_ (Amy Carmichael/India)
- _His Best for God_ (Eric Liddell)
- _Hudson Taylor_ (China)
- _Madugu_ (Nigeria)
- _Ringu of India’s Forest Send Someone to Tell Me Devil-Kings and Cannibals_ (New Hebrides)
