Telling the real-life stories of missionaries that gave everything to minister in foreign lands, this book is great reading and challenges people to work for Christ wherever they are.

NEVER HIDE A HYENA IN A SACK
by Ines Penny
(SIM) $3.50

Never Hide a Hyena in a Sack is a short collection of short folk stories from Africa. Each story is adapted for young readers and carries its own biblical application.

RICK-A-CHEE SERIES
by Edna D. Menzies
(SIM) $2.85 each

The Rick-a-chee series includes six different stories about a young boy from Africa, including: Rick-a-chee and the Runaway Kobos, Rick-a-chee Takes a Journey, Rick-a-chee and the Naughty Monkeys, Rick-a-chee and the Sky-Blue Cat, and Big Trouble for Rick-a-chee.

These books are 8 1/2" x 11" and have full-color pen illustrations on every other page, along with a full-color cover. They would be great for accenting a unit-study of Africa, or just to have for family reading.

WHEN I GROW UP
I Can Go Anywhere for Jesus
by Terry Whalin
(Wycliffe) hardback $5.95

Ideal for children ages 3-7, this picture story book uniquely combines the use of colorful cartoons with photographs. The "what-do-you-want-to-be-when-you-grow-up" theme is familiar, but the emphasis on world missions sets this book apart from others. This easy-to-read book shows how God can use many different occupations for His work.

WHAT LANGUAGE DOES GOD SPEAK?
The Story of Bible Translation
by Karen Lewis and Philip White
(Wycliffe) $1.50

HISTORY and GEOGRAPHY

THE ALPHABET MAKERS
a presentation from the Museum of the Alphabet
(SIL) $13.50

The Alphabet Makers is a wonderful book reviewing the development of the world’s different alphabets. It describes where writing began and goes into detail about the way ancient alphabets are read. Filled with great illustrations, this book would be an asset to any home library.

BASIC TIMELINE FIGURE SET
by Crys Westlund
(J & K Schooling) $25.00

This timeline comes with 400 cut and paste figures. Your children will be actively learning as they cut, color, and paste the illustrations onto their timeline. The new version will include missions figures from the curriculum.

MARK-IT™ US/WORLD MAP
MARK-IT™ TIMELINE
(Geography Matters) $9.95 each

These laminated, double-sided maps are an excellent tool for every homeschool family. One side is an outline of each country in the world while the reverse side is an outline of the United States (each state outlined). This enables you to write in whatever information you wish to highlight. You can use these maps for geography, history, or current missions information.

The timeline is very simple with lines noting fifty-year intervals from creation to A.D. 2000. The reverse has only lines—no dates—so that you can highlight any time period. I especially like this timeline because it can be taped to the side of my refrigerator (instead of taking up 15 feet on my family room wall) and be used for years. For best results, use Vis-a-Vis™ transparency pens.

THE BIG PICTURE TIMELINE.
(Kids Can Make a Difference) $14.99

The Big Picture Timeline is printed in book form and can be pieced together and put on your wall to help you visualize God’s mission for reaching the lost throughout the Bible.

Although it is not designed from a Christian perspective, this activity book is an excellent source of fun activities that can easily be done at home. Included are map games with various world map outlines, guessing games, flag games, and cultural awareness games (in the back are also outlines of many international flags to color).

THE HISTORY OF OUR UNITED STATES
by Judy Hull Moore and Laurel Hicks
(A Beka Books) $11.15

This fourth grade A Beka history book covers United States history from the Age of Exploration through the present. Maps and colorful illustrations make the reading come alive for students.

THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD
In Christian Perspective, Vol. 1, Since the Beginning
(A Beka Book Publications) $16.10

This history book is excellent for studying world history in light of Christianity, and God's plan for the world. It begins with creation and covers through the Middle Ages. The book is filled with excellent illustrations, maps, and photographs.

THE MODERN AGE
The History of the World in Christian Perspective, Vol. 2
contributing authors Jerry Combee, Laurel Hicks, and Mike Lowman
(A Beka Book Publications) $14.00

Beginning at about A.D. 1500, The Modern Age, emphasizing liberty and personal responsibility, helps students realize the importance of each person's actions. This is a very thorough history book and enables students to see God's hand in the history of our world.

GEOGRAPHY SONGS and STATES AND CAPITALS SONGS
by Kathy Troxel
(Audio Memory Publishing)
Geography $9.70, States and Capitals $19.95
Based on the theory that you never forget what you sing, these tapes teach geography facts, countries, and all fifty United States and their capitals with music. Each song is repeated several times on both sides to aid review. Although the tapes are not recorded in stereo, they sound very professional.

HANDS-ON GEOGRAPHY
(Kids Can Make a Difference) $14.95

This is a practical geography workbook with a missions emphasis, designed by homeschoolers.

HISTORY VIA THE SCENIC ROUTE
Getting Off the Textbook Interstate
by Diana Waring
(Lifeline Resources) $19.95

This set of four audio tapes explains how to make dry, "irrelevant" history come alive. Diana Waring shows you how to teach history through literature, art, music, math, and science.

THE KINGFISHER ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF THE WORLD
(Kingfisher) $40.00

This is a beautifully illustrated book covering ancient to modern history. Essays, timelines, and thematic features, along with a period-by-period approach, combine to make history come alive for students.

THE SECRET SEARCH - Pakistan
(complete curriculum) $24.95
(Crossroad Publication)

Among all the missionary materials available for churches, this curriculum stands alone as one specifically applicable for homeschool or Christian school use. Designed to be used as a social studies curriculum unit, the kit contains a story, a full-sized map, more than one dozen poster-sized color photos, worksheets, Pakistan cultural activities, and traditional recipes. It includes a day-by-day outline. If worked on an hour a day, the unit will be done in two weeks. I suggest using this material during the 15th week of your school year.

THE USBORNE BOOK OF WORLD HISTORY
by Dr. Anne Millard and Patricia Vanags
(Ussborne Publishers) $19.95

This book, containing excellent illustrations, is an introduction to world history reviewing the first civilizations through the early twentieth century. It provides, in short, visual chapters, an overall view of world cultures.
WHAT IN THE WORLD'S GOING ON HERE?
Four Hours of Living History
by Diana Waring
(Lifeline Resources) $19.95

These four cassettes reveal Jesus Christ as the central figure in human history, and the Church as central in human development. The set covers archaeology, ancient historians, Old Testament prophecies, and contemporary research. This is a great way to learn history—reevaluating it from an eternal perspective!

THE TIMETABLES OF HISTORY
A Horizontal Linkage of People and Events
by Bernard Grun, based on Werner Stein's Kulturfahrplan (Touchstone Books, Simon & Schuster) $20.00

This awesome resource contains a wealth of notable events in world history from the year 4241 B.C. to A.D. 1978. This 678-page timeline covers events in history, politics, literature, theater, religion, philosophy, and learning—from the beginning of the 365-day calendar to the New York Yankees' second consecutive World Series win. This is a must-have for every home library.

THE KINGFISHER REFERENCE ATLAS
An A-Z Guide to Countries of the World,
(Kingfisher) $19.95

This beautiful, hardcover atlas is the perfect reference guide for home. It contains over 150 country profiles from A to Z, including more than 160 relief maps in color, over 250 statistical charts and graphs, flags, economic surveys, and essential facts and figures about each country.

OTHER MAPS AND WORLD ATLASSES ARE AVAILABLE FROM:
• Rand McNally & Company
• The National Geographic Society
• National Geographic World
(See index of suppliers for addresses)

MIDDLE EASTERN MAPS
(Rose Publishing) $9.95 laminated $13.95

These colorful, two-side, laminated maps are excellent teaching tools. They would be a great aid in helping students sharpen their geographical skills.

Paul's Journeys reviews the areas where Paul's centered his ministries.
The Holy Land and compares Israel and its surrounding territories during Bible times and the present. This map would be a helpful tool for any Christian family.

The Middle East is another great map for comparing. Its "then and now" view enables us to picture the lands we know as they once were.

UNREACHED PEOPLE MAP
(Assemblies of God Division of Foreign Missions)
$7.50 each (40" by 27 1/2")

All around the edges of this full-color world map are illustrations and descriptions of dozens of unreached people groups. There are many statistical details and charts about the need for missions and the distribution of religions. Available are regional maps, maps of the U.S.A., and world maps, both framed and unframed, along with other geography study packets.

MAPS:
The World and United States
(Teacher’s Friend Publications) $9.95

This publication has been very popular with homeschool parents. The book of Maps contains outline maps from all countries and states and can be used at any grade level. Approximately half of the book refers to other countries, while the other half contains maps of the States.

HUBBARD RELIEF MAPS
(Hubbard) starting at $15.95

Available are regional maps, maps of the U.S.A., and world maps, both framed and unframed, along with other geography study packets.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

BERLITZ JR. (WITH “TEDDY BERLITZ”)
(Lilian Vernon) $19.95

Berlitz is a well-known name in language education, and now there is a program introducing languages to children. Italian, French, Spanish, and German are available, and each set includes a hardcover book and a 60-minute audio cassette.

BIBLE SPANISH
(Marana Life) notebook and tape set $39.95

If you are planning to take a missions trip to a Spanish speaking country, I heartily recommend this curriculum. Written by a former high school Spanish and French teacher (who is currently a homeschooler), this material gives students a foundation in Spanish, with the primary purpose of learning to witness and share the Gospel. The first-year course, “How to Witness in Spanish,” consists of a three-ring binder, illustrated pages and easy-to-read text and vocabulary, along with five cassette tapes. Soon to come is a second-year program, “How to Disciple in Spanish,” and a separate two-year curriculum in French. This material is written specifically for homeschoolers, but would be very useful for any short-term mission team or for a Christian school.

CHILDREN’S LIVING FRENCH
CHILDREN’S LIVING SPANISH
(God’s World Books) $18.95 each
Each language set includes 40 lessons on two 60-minute cassettes, a 128-page lesson book, and a 64-page dictionary, designed for 3rd to 6th grade students. The lessons feature lively dialogues, songs, poems, and well-known fairy tales. Each manual contains every word and phrase from the 40 lessons on cassette, plus English translations and descriptive illustrations. Also included is a two-way picture dictionary with words and phrases from the recorded lessons.

COUNT YOUR WAY SERIES
by Jim Haskins
(Carrhoda Books, Inc.) $5.95 each

Each of these small soft-cover books teaches children to count to ten in a foreign language, as well as introducing them to another culture and country. Included in the series is Count Your Way Through Russia, Count Your Way Through Africa (Swahili), and Count Your Way Through the Arab World. Each book contains both foreign letters, English pronunciation, and full color illustrations.

LOGOS LANGUAGE INSTITUTE
Introductory program $15 per language
6-level home-study program in Spanish 2 pcs., $110

Logos Language Institute has developed these language materials with witnessing phrases and everyday conversations designed for short-term missionary service.

The program is simple to use, and more detailed than Words for the World, although you must purchase each language individually. Currently, there are twenty-three different languages available, including a more detailed six-level home-study program available only in Spanish.

WORDS FOR THE WORLD
(Comprehensive Language Communications) hardcover book/eight cassette tapes $43.50/set 10 books plus classroom audio cassettes $250.00

Words for the World, a unique program, consists of a beautiful, hardcover book and a set of eight audio cassettes. The book is filled with full-color illustrations and highlights the cultures of France, Spain, Italy, the former Soviet Union, Germany, Norway, Holland, and Sweden. A vocabulary word bank remains consistent from language to language to allow students to see the similarities among languages. All foreign words and phrases are featured with their corresponding English translations on the cassette tapes. A detailed teacher's guide at the front of the book explains how to adapt the material to the needs of different ages and grade levels.

There are two versions available, one which includes a chapter of Bible verses in every language (God's Words for the World) and a revised version with this chapter omitted (for use in public schools). The first version mentioned is a perfect foreign language study to correspond with Teaching with God's Heart for the World.
OTHER CURRICULUM

M.A.F. FLIGHTS FOR KIDS
(Missionary Aviation Fellowship) $6.00 donation

It is obvious that M.A.F.'s heart for producing these materials is to share God's heart for missions! This curriculum is divided into three age groups: K through 1st grade, 2nd through 4th, and 5th through 6th grade.

Each thirty-five page packet contains handouts, worksheets, maps, paper airplane models, and M.A.F. co-pilot certificates (all of which can be photocopied), a full-size poster, and information about Missionary Aviation Fellowship. In addition, this material could also be used in a homeschool format.

The course is designed as a "mission adventure for children," including meeting with a travel agent, applying for passports, and imaginary airplane travel. Children "visit" major areas of the world and experience various aspects of the target culture.

The workbooks are attractively made and the lessons easy to follow. In addition to ideas for games, and cultural foods, the course also addresses the challenges of mission life and emphasizes Bible translation and witnessing.

There are a total of seven segments, including: Getting Ready, Africa, Europe, Asia, The Pacific, Latin America, and Going Home.

MINI-MISSIONS CONFERENCES FOR CHILDREN
(R.C. Law & Co. Inc.)
complete set $24.95 or, $4.95 each

If you are planning to lead a Vacation Bible School or series of Sunday school lessons, this material is excellent! It is designed for 3rd through 6th graders, although it could easily be adapted for either older or younger children.

INSPIRATIONAL/OTHER

THE POWER OF VISION
How You Can Capture and Apply God's Vision for Your Ministry
by George Barna
(Regal Books) hardcover $14.99 softcover $9.99

Throughout the Bible and history, God has used people willing to follow His vision for their lives. In this motivational and instructional book, the author teaches about the importance of having a vision. He shares how vision is different from mission, the myths that Christian leaders believe about vision, common practices and beliefs that inhibit the development of true vision, the characteristics of godly vision, practical steps toward discovering God's unique vision for you and your ministry, ways to share and promote congregational ownership of the vision, and the relationship between vision and planning. This book was written for pastors, but is applicable for anyone desiring an effective ministry.
25 LINES AROUND
by Larry Stockstill
(Heartbeat Publishing, Bethany World Prayer Center) $4.99

If you placed all the people in the world who do not even claim to be Christian in a single-file line, you could circle the earth at the equator 25 times! This book is written to motivate Christians everywhere to look beyond the walls of our churches to the “25 Lines Around.”

The author is the pastor of Bethany World Prayer Center in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Within seven years, this mission-oriented church of 5-6,000 members gave over 7 million dollars to missions. At the same time, they paid off a 6,000-seat auditorium and adjoining land which cost four million dollars.

This amazing testimony is a powerful example of what a local church can do when they give priority to missions.

Included are practical instructions for establishing a strong missions program in your local church.

ANY GIVEN DAY IN THE LIFE OF THE BIBLE
(Multnomah Press/Questar Publishers) $19.95

This is a beautiful, full-color book of about 300 photographs of Wycliffe missionaries all around the world.

All of the photographs were taken October 1, 1991, by different photographers in 50 different countries. These photographers captured the essence of the typical daily routine of a Bible translator.

BEFORE YOU HIT THE WALL
Shaping Up Spiritually to Win
by Danny Lehmann
(YWAM Publishing) $7.99

This 125-page paperback is one of the most practical books on discipline and Christian living I have ever read.

Included are practical ideas for setting a time of morning devotions, effective quiet time and personal prayer, scripture memorization, fasting, Bible study, eating and exercise, and other discipline helps.

This is an excellent source to read during “Foundations Week 1, Volume 1.” It is easy to read, and full of funny, down-to-earth examples.

DARING TO LIVE ON THE EDGE
The Adventure of Faith and Finances
by Loren Cunningham
(YWAM Publishing) $7.99

Loren Cunningham’s books have inspired and encouraged my husband and me and have been at the top of the list of books we recommend most. Daring to Live on the Edge is no exception. In this exciting testimony, Loren shares his personal experience and what the Bible says about trusting God for financial provision.

Any Christian who desires to use the resources he or she has been given for the kingdom of God should read this book.

THE GREAT COMMISSION LIFESTYLE
Conforming Your Life to Kingdom Priorities
by Robert E. Coleman
(Fleming H. Revell, a division of Baker Book House) $8.00

Robert E. Coleman offers a practical and personal application of principles found in his best-selling book, The Master Plan of Evangelism (over 1 million copies sold). Throughout this supplemental book, he focuses on Jesus’ last words, known as the Great Commission.

This book is heavily footnoted with many scripture references in every paragraph.
