

charleston girls night out

with daring daughters

daring daughters & dirty feet

how beautiful are the feet of them.....

Daring daughters is a vision to inspire young women for world missions.

There are many BIG needs in our world today: orphans, unborn babies, hurting children, poverty, human slavery, and people who desperately need Jesus. Has God put an idea in your heart to make a difference in the world? Mother and daughter team, Ann and Christi Dunagan want to stir-up YOUR vision, for God's eternal purposes.

Come with a friend or a daughter for a fun and inspiring evening!

When: Monday, March 19, 2012 - 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.

Where: Charleston, SC (at a private home).

Contact Ann @ <http://harvestministry.org> for information and home location. (P.S. If you would like to help, please bring a small snack to share. Thanks!)

Ann Dunagan is a longtime homeschooling mother of 7 kids and an international minister alongside her husband Jon (with Harvest Ministry -- focused on winning souls, loving orphans, equipping nationals, and serving churches). Author of several books, including The Mission-Minded Family, Ann motivates families for world missions.

Christi Dunagan, the Dunagan's oldest daughter is a well-traveled and dynamic speaker, engaged to a 3rd-generation missionary from Niger, W. Africa. Ann & Christi are co-founders of Harvest Ministry's orphan ministry, currently caring for 700+ children. Together, they are speaking at the Teach Them Diligently Convention in Spartanburg, SC.